Introduction: These model orders have been written for the largest councils. Therefore we have modified the Standing Orders to suit our smaller council, although we have retained those in bold type, which contain legal and statutory requirements. Note the Clerk/RFO is referred to as the “Proper Officer”.

Standing Orders are the written rules of the council and regulate the proceedings. The below standing orders shall also apply to any committees or sub committees formed which will also have terms of reference agreed by council. (and will be attached to these Standing Orders)

1. RULES OF DEBATE AT MEETINGS

- a. Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear requiring a proposer and seconder but at the discretion and direction of the Chairman.
- b. Only one proposal shall be taken at a time.
- c. An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
- d. All proposals shall be purposeful and constructive

2. DISORDERLY CONDUCT AT MEETINGS

- a. No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly. If this standing order is ignored, the chairman of the meeting shall request such person(s) to moderate or improve their conduct and failing this be excluded from the meeting.
- b. If person(s) disregard the request of the chairman of the meeting to moderate or improve their conduct, any councillor or the chairman of the meeting may move that the person be no longer heard or be excluded from the meeting. The motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without discussion.
- C. If a resolution made under standing order 2(b) is ignored, the chairman of the meeting may take further reasonable steps to restore order or to progress the meeting. This may include temporarily suspending or closing the meeting.

3. MEETINGS GENERALLY

Full council meetings

Committee meetings

Sub committee meetings

- a. Meetings shall not take place in premises which at the time of the meeting are used for the supply of alcohol, unless no other premises are available free of charge or at a reasonable cost.
- b. The minimum three clear days for notice of a meeting does not include the day on which notice was issued, the day of the meeting, a Sunday, a day of the Christmas break, a day of the Easter break or of a bank holiday or a day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning.

- c. The minimum three clear days' public notice for a meeting does not include the day on which the notice was issued or the day of the meeting unless the meeting is convened at shorter notice.
- d. Meetings shall be open to the public unless their presence is prejudicial to the public interest by reason of the confidential nature of the business to be transacted or for other special reasons. The public's exclusion from part or all of a meeting shall be by a resolution which shall give reasons for the public's exclusion.
- e. Public participation will be included in the middle of the agenda for a maximum of 10 minutes. This length of time is at the discretion of the Chairman. A brief note of any participation will be recorded in the minutes.
- f. A question posed by a member of the public need not be answered or start a debate. The chairman may direct when a written or oral reply will be given.
- g. Subject to standing order 3(m), a person who attends a meeting is permitted to report on the meeting whilst the meeting is open to the public. To "report" means to film, photograph, make an audio recording of meeting proceedings, use any other means for enabling persons not present to see or hear the meeting as it takes place or later or to report or to provide oral or written commentary about the meeting so that the report or commentary is available as the meeting takes place or later to persons not present.
- h. A person present at a meeting may not provide an oral report or oral commentary about a meeting as it takes place without permission.
- i. The press shall be provided with reasonable facilities for the taking of their report of all or part of a meeting at which they are entitled to be present.
